ASSEMBLY AREA: Mount Vernon Place (Washington Monument). The Assembly Area layout places difficult logistics on the Parade. Therefore, promptness in arriving at the Assembly Area is mandatory.

B. Parade units should assemble at the Assembly Area no earlier than 12:00 noon but not later than 1:00 p.m.

SAFETY ISSUES: Distribution of materials of any kind constitutes a safety hazard and will not be tolerated. Throwing of candy presents an opportunity for children to run into the parade route and be struck by a vehicle. VIOLATORS WILL BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY INJURIES TO PARADE SPECTATORS RESULTING FROM SUCH ACTIONS. In addition, parade spectators on the sidewalks often discard such materials. This presents additional work for the Baltimore City Sanitation Department, and these costs are passed on to the Parade. VIOLATORS WILL BE BILLED FOR THESE EXPENSES.

ARCHBISHOP'S RESIDENCE AND REVIEWING STAND:

When passing the Archbishop's Residence at Charles and Mulberry Streets, units will render a salute (eyes right) to the Archbishop of Baltimore and/or the Archbishop's representative(s) and/or guests(s), should any or all of them be reviewing the Parade. Likewise, units will render a salute (eyes right) to the Parade Grand Marshal when passing the official Reviewing Stand. The official Reviewing Stand this year is located on McKeldin Plaza, on the South side of the 100 block of East Pratt Street, directly across from the 100 East Pratt Street (IBM/T. Rowe Price) Building, and East of Light Street.

BANDS AND UNITS AWARDS: In the event that the Parade Committee decides to confer any awards, winners will be notified on or before March 31. Awards will be mailed to the winners.
